Quadra Island shellfish processing company for sale! This well-established business has been incorporated since 2009 and provided quality products to market for years prior. The sale includes all the equipment at the processing plant and validated quality control, Vibrio and Norovirus protocols to process shellfish year-round. The sellers are willing to work with the buyers for a smooth transition into taking over the business and to help with any training needed. Situated in the Industrial hub of Quathiaski Cove, a short drive from all other services and the ferry terminal in this area. (id:6289)
