Three Side-by-Side Lots with Character Home in Historic Hedley! Sitting on three adjoining lots, this charming 1950s home has been lovingly updated in 2015 and tenanted ever since – with a tenant who’s love to stay. Inside, you’ll find 2 bedrooms, a full bathroom, and an open-concept kitchen and living area that feels bright and inviting. Downstairs, the cellar-style basement offers power, the hot water tank, and space for laundry or extra storage. Out back, you’ll enjoy lane access and ample parking for your RV, quads, boat, or other toys. Yes, the home could use a little TLC, but the setting is unbeatable – located in the eclectic and peaceful hamlet of Hedley (population ~260), just one hour west of Penticton or three and a half hours from Vancouver. Made famous by the discovery of gold in 1897, Hedley is a name steeped in Canadian gold mining history – and today, it’s an outdoor lover’s paradise, surrounded by wild lands, lakes, and streams.
