Looking for the most inviting place on the earth? You found it. Did you know that buying a lot in the Vales actually saves you money? The money that you save on cost of the lot can go into the construction of your home. Upgrade your kitchen, floors, add on a garage what ever you can think of. More home for less money, imagine that concept in today's market. Located only 12 minutes from Stavanger Drive, one acre lots, trees, walking trail around a lake and more house for your money. Oversized private treed lots, and 100% customization, all located within a prestigious residential neighbourhood development, incredible country style living just minutes from town as they are situated next to Shoe Cove Pond. Minutes from the hub of St. John's and the airport. Let us design your home or bring your own builder to build for you.
