0 Bedroom, 0.00 Bathroom,
Vacant Land on 4.50 Acres

N/A, Pouch Cove, Newfoundland & Labrador

Welcome to 617 Main Road – a truly rare opportunity in the heart of scenic Pouch Cove. This expansive 4.5-acre parcel of land offers breathtaking ocean views and endless possibilities for development or uses. With its generous size, gentle topography, and direct access from Main Road, the property is well-suited for future residential development, a private retreat, or a creative project that complements the charm of the community. Rich in local history, on the site St. Agnes’s Church – a landmark whose cornerstone was laid in 1916, the same year Pouch Cove gained ecclesiastical independence from Holy Trinity. This area carries both cultural significance and long-standing community spirit. Whether you’re looking to build, invest, or simply secure a slice of coastal Newfoundland, this property offers a blend of natural beauty, historical context, and practical potential. Don’t miss your chance to own a piece of Pouch Cove’s story. (id:6289)
