AMAZING PRICE & INCREDIBLE VALUE! - Welcome to 25 Janeway Place, an exceptional residence with a rich history as the former home of Brigadier General Samuel Connell, Fort Pepperell's Base Commander. This distinguished property in Pleasantville, St. John's, NL, has been extensively renovated and thoughtfully extended to blend modern luxury with superior craftsmanship. A newly completed second story addition features a luxurious complimentary living space adjacent to the primary suite, completed with a spa-like ensuite, featuring a soaking tub, custom tile and glass shower, and a massive walk-in closet, along with a private deck that offers sweeping city views. The main floor boasts an inviting layout, including a cozy porch, a formal dining room, an eat-in kitchen with an adjacent pantry, a spacious living room with a propane fireplace, and a sunroom that opens onto a private concrete patio, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Completing the main level is an attached garage, adding to the home's convenience. New efficient furnace installed this November. Upstairs, you'll find four generously sized bedrooms, each with ample natural light, along with a newly appointed full bathroom. This stunning property backs onto the Virginia River, providing a serene natural backdrop to this historically significant home. An exquisite blend of modern amenities and enduring quality, 25 Janeway Place is a rare gem in a prime location. Vacant and ready for immediate possession... (id:6289)
