This lot has the perfect mix of multiple different coves surrounded by trees for privacy, as well as cleared, rolling fields with unobstructed water front views. The diversity that is offered with this property provides many different options for someone with a mind for business. Whether you want to return the land to its original farmland pastures or perhaps turn to tourism and open up a glamping campground or winery with a restaurant. This property with its stunning views is sure to impress! Power lines and a driveway run through the property to the main road, so many of the important building expenses have already been taken care of. There is no well or septic on this lot.
