The possibilities are endless for this multi-purpose property that is located in the heart of downtown Truro. The fully accessible main floor commercial space can be set up as one large office, or as a shared business space, and storage will never be an issue with the large dry basement below. Above this commercial space is a 1 bedroom apartment on the second floor that is currently occupied by reliable tenants. This property also boasts ample parking - a rare find in the downtown core - as well as a large private fenced in backyard, suitable for hosting activities or future development. Come check out the potential this property holds today! (id:6289)
