Portapique, Portapique, Nova Scotia

This charming old country Church is wide open, full of light and boasts many original features. Endless possibilities abound in this quaint building. It is the perfect size for a conversion into a home, business or short-term rental with tons of character. Original hardwood floors, tall windows, raised platform and coat hooks in the foyer, all invoke the buildings past. Haloes of the old pews are still visible on the wainscoting, and one pew remains. A Gothic arched mullioned glass door leads from the loft into a unfinished space at the base of the functioning bell tower. The basement features a walkout and is suitable for finishing or converting to living space. Well and septic to be installed by the purchaser. Located in Portapique along the picturesque Cobequid Bay in close proximity to many natural wanderings and cultural happenings to appreciate. The total square footage includes the loft, which isnt completely finished, it awaits your vision! There is a ramp at the side entrance; whether it meets code for wheelchair access will have to be determined. (id:6289)
