Step back in time with this Historic 1861 Italianate Masterpiece. Once the stately residence of John C. Blackadarone of the villages most prominent early citizensthis elegant Italianate home offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of Yarmouths rich history. Blackadar began his career as a teacher before becoming a highly successful figure in the lumber manufacturing industry, and his legacy lives on in the timeless character of this remarkable home. Brimming with 19th-century charm, the home features four spacious bedrooms, one bathroom, and sits proudly on over an acre of land, just minutes from the heart of Yarmouth. Original architectural details abound, including the dramatic central staircase, finely crafted mouldings, and solid wood doors that have stood the test of time. One of the homes most unique and romantic features is the original widows walk, where mariners wives once stood watch for ships returning to port.
