Single Family on 35.00 Acres

Reserve Mines, Reserve Mines, Nova Scotia

Welcome to 410 Neville Street an incredible 35-acre property offering space, privacy, and potential in the heart of Reserve Mines. Formerly a working dairy farm, this land holds a wealth of opportunity for those looking to farm, develop, or invest in a unique rural setting. The property features a solid, well-built home with a functional layout. While the interior is dated, it offers a great foundation for renovation or customization to suit your needs.

What truly sets this property apart are the existing outbuildings, including a large two-storey barn and a spacious equipment garage, both in place to support a return to agricultural use or future development. With its size and layout, the land also holds potential for subdivision or expanded homesteading. Whether you're looking to build a legacy property, start a new venture, or explore development potential, 410 Neville Street is ready to meet the moment. (id:6289)
