French River, French River, Prince Edward Island

After more than six years of vision, planning, and thoughtful execution, Phase 2 of Three Wharf Hill is finally here. Nestled in the heart of French River, one of PEI's most photographed destinations, this subdivision is the result of persistence and precision. And if you've driven the bend past the old wharfs, you already know, there's nothing else like this. French River doesn't just offer a view, it offers a way of life. With three active wharfs within sight, the scenery changes by the hour. Boats glide in and out, the tides shift, and light dances across the water in ways that only this pocket of the Island can deliver. These lots have been sculpted to respect the landscape while offering some of the most elevated river view lots available on the North Shore. So what makes Three Wharf Hill different? Every detail has been thoughtfully considered, underground power to protect those views, double-wide roads with proper ditching and turnarounds for safety, and Category 1 perc tests that remove the guesswork. Of the 10 newly released parcels, 7 are perched atop rolling hills designed to take in the panorama, while 3 offer direct waterfront access but all owners will share in a 6± acre common green space featuring a future community beach house and a private beach for residents of Three Wharf Hill. If you've been waiting for a PEI coastal property that doesn't compromise on planning, location, or lifestyle, this might be the one worth looking into.
