Vacant Land on 12.24 Acres

Tracadie, Tracadie, Nova Scotia

12.24 Acres with Ocean Views! This 12.24-acre cleared parcel of land offers excellent development potential or the space to build your dream home. Ideally situated between Antigonish and Port Hawkesbury, the property offers a convenient location with year-round access. Running alongside a public road that leads to a nearby public beach, the land provides both accessibility to the water and incredible views. A completed subdivision plan divides the property into 5 water-view lots, making it a ready for developers or investors looking to move forward with a coastal project. For those interested in building a personal residence, the property also presents the option of establishing a spacious home site with expansive grounds, while still being close to amenities and the shoreline. A versatile piece of land with strong potential whether for development, investment, or personal use. (id:6289)
