New Glasgow, New Glasgow, Nova Scotia

Situated in the Downtown core of the Town of New Glasgow, This Historical landmark building offers many historic architectural features and vast development opportunities. Built in the early 1800's, This building was formally known as the Bell Property. This is one of the few original buildings built in the Town of New Glasgow, After the Towns creation in 1784. Once occupied by Adam Carr Bell, Who became the first mayor of the Town of New Glasgow in 1876, Bell later went on to achieve many provincial and federal political designations. This stone building stands tall and strong in the heart of the Town of New Glasgow with a vast amount of stories to tell from over the years, This beautiful building still has a lifetime of chapter left to be written. Call a REALTOR® today if you're interested in becoming the next Stewart of this special landmark and help nurture it back to its original glory. (id:6289)
