Welcome to The Pine Lodge on the Upper French River, standing on the shore of one of it's 3 private islands, just minutes from shore. Over 100 years ago you would be sitting by the stone fireplace in the great room after a day on the water telling stories of your adventures and probably a few lies about fish that got away with the other guests. Built in 1907 as a private fishing lodge, it still stands almost in it's original form with it's sturdy beams, high ceiling and pine walls. The cottage is off grid and still has it's original oil lanterns and wood cook stove. There is a hydro transformer on the property with the possibility of connecting if you choose to. Each of the 4 bedrooms are furnished with the original dressers and porcelain wash basins. A large screened in porch off the great room has an incredible view of the river and just a few steps out the door brings you down to the deck and dock. Furnished with most of the original furnishings and decor, this cottage will take you back in time to a simpler and quieter life. Call today for your private showing and make it happen. (id:6289)
