RAMSEY LAKE ICON - Rarely does a home of this stature come available. Perched on a point above the water, this true 5-bedroom, 5-bath home offers stunning views from almost every room. From the moment you enter into the grand foyer with winding staircase, you know you're somewhere special. The huge picture window in the massive kitchen is like a moving painting that can mesmerize. You can picture your guests enjoying the formal dining with fireplace and patio access, and then moving over into the enormous living room with high ceilings for the post-dinner discussions and laughter. Thankfully the kids all have their own bedroom upstairs and even a guest room with it's own ensuite as a backup. The master offers huge, western views from its private patio over Science North and Bell Park. The basement is the ideal entertaining space with bar, pool table, another fireplace, sauna and another guest bedroom with ensuite bath. All of this right beside the pool deck and expansive patio spaces waiting for a firepit to enjoy the evenings over top of the water. Don't worry, your pontoon boat that hosts your guest tours of Ramsey is well protected in the ""bat cave"" style boathouse built right into the Canadian Shield. With the house having the updated metal roof, updated windows and newer decking, some of your own personal touches on the interior will dial this spot in to exactly what the family needs. All this walking distance to the university and only a few mins drive to the hospital and the Idy. If you want waterfront to impress and entertain, this is the one. (id:6289)
