767 - N. Welland, Welland, Ontario

A rare opportunity has emerged to own a stunning, one-year-old semi-detached raised bungalow, perfectly situated on the border of Welland and Fonthill. This exceptional property offers a unique layout, premium finishes, and versatile living spaces, making it a must-see for discerning buyers. The home's modern design is immediately apparent, featuring a freshly paved driveway that leads to an inviting entrance. Inside, the gorgeous open-concept main floor is designed for both comfortable living and grand-scale entertaining. The centerpiece of this space is the oversized island, which anchors the gourmet kitchen and provides a natural gathering spot for family and friends. A standout feature of this property is the private master suite that includes walk in closet and ensuite bath, thoughtfully located separately above the garage for the ultimate in privacy and tranquility. This secluded retreat offers a peaceful escape from the main living areas. The fully finished lower level presents incredible in-law potential, complete with a convenient walk-out. This space is ideal for multi-generational families or as a guest suite, offering both privacy and accessibility. Car enthusiasts and outdoor adventurers will appreciate the side yard driveway, specifically designed to accommodate an RV or boat, a rare and valuable feature. This home represents a unique blend of style, functionality, and location. Its prime position on the edge of Welland and Fonthill provides easy access to the amenities of both communities, including parks, shopping, and dining. Don't miss your chance to own this exceptional, nearly new home. Schedule your private viewing today (id:6289)
