Key features include an oversized garage that doubles as a workshop, a 2,000+ sq ft animal shelter, and multiple outbuildings for storage and livestock. With ample open land, a strong well, and canal access, the property is ideally suited for gardens, pasture, or larger-scale agricultural uses. Its layout also supports future subdivision and development potential, given the proximity to infrastructure and neighboring projects. Inside, the home is filled with natural

Hardwood floors flow through the main living areas, beginning with a warm and welcoming foyer that leads into a cozy family room framed by large front-facing windows. The adjacent dining area offers scenic views, while the kitchen blends classic oak cabinetry with modern stainless steel appliances, including a gas range, built-in oven, and double-door refrigerator.
