This freestanding commercial building offers an exceptional opportunity for owner-users or investors seeking a high-exposure location in a rapidly growing market. Zoned CH1 (Commercial Highway One), the property supports a broad range of commercial uses including retail, office, service commercial, or mixed-use redevelopment-making it ideal for a variety of business ventures. This well-maintained, single-storey structure spans approximately 2,300 square feet and sits prominently on a visible corner lot with excellent access and signage opportunities. With vacant possession available, the property is ready for immediate occupancy, allowing for seamless business setup or customization to suit a buyer's specific operational needs. Centrally positioned just steps from Mission's downtown core and minutes from major transportation routes, the site benefits from steady traffic exposure and close proximity to nearby retail centres, restaurants, and the West Coast Express (id:6289)
