2 Bedroom, 1.00 Bathroom,
Single Family on 0.00 Acres

Central, Oshawa (central), Ontario

Nestled on a serene, tree-lined dead-end in Central Oshawa, 90 Quebec Street is the kind of property that rarely comes to market. An all-brick, two-bedroom detached bungalow sitting on an extra-deep 36' x 116 ft lot with parking for six and a coveted separate side entrance to the lower level. From the curb you'll be charmed by the classic red-brick facade. Step inside to discover an inviting main floor where natural light dances across original hardwood, and a flexible living-and-dining zone flows into an eat-in kitchen just waiting for your personal touch. Two generous bedrooms anchor the layout, each offering deep closets and restful garden views. Downstairs, seven-foot ceilings create ample storage, laundry, plus a rough-in for a second bath. With the separate entrance already in place, investors will spot easy potential for an in-law or income suite. Outside is where the property truly shines: the fully fenced yard stretches nearly 120 feet, providing room for vegetable gardens, a future pool, or a substantial addition while still leaving green space for kids and pets to roam. Big-ticket updates: roof (2016), boiler (2016), eaves (2017), sliding patio door (2019), and most windows mean you can focus on style rather than structure. Walk to elementary schools, parks, shops, GO station in under twenty minutes, or reach Hwy 401 in twenty. Whether you're a first-time buyer craving elbow-room, a downsizer seeking single-level living, or a savvy investor hunting an
