Columbus, Oshawa (columbus), Ontario

Welcome to 27 Columbus Road East, originally known as The Manse, a beautifully restored Victorian Century Home that seamlessly blends historic charm with modern comforts. Steeped in history and character. Inside, you will find original hardwood floors carried throughout, soaring 10-foot ceilings on the main floor, and elegant 12-inch baseboards that reflect the craftsmanship of a bygone era. Every detail has been thoughtfully preserved and enhanced, allowing this home to retain its timeless appeal while offering the functionality of today's lifestyle. The heart of the home is the renovated gourmet kitchen, appointed with a Wolf stove and vent hood, dramatic 12-foot vaulted ceilings, a cozy fireplace, and a walkout to the backyard retreat. Generous principal rooms create a warm and inviting flow, perfect for both intimate gatherings and entertaining. Large windows bathe the interiors in natural light, highlighting the home's architectural character and refined finishes. Upstairs, the spacious bedrooms continue the theme of light and elegance, offering comfort and serenity. Outdoors, the property transforms into a private oasis: a resort-style deck and salt water pool with pool house and change room, a tranquil pond with walking bridge, and extensive gardens that surround the home in natural beauty situated on a 132 x 264 foot lot. The mature landscaping frames the property, providing an idyllic setting to enjoy peaceful mornings or host family and friends. This residence stands as a rare offering in todays market, showcasing timeless craftsmanship alongside thoughtful updates. A rare opportunity to own a piece of history 27 Columbus Rd is more than a home; its a story brought to life. Located In The Hamlet Of Columbus Minutes To Brooklin and the 407 & 412 Interchange.
