Exceptional opportunity to own a well-established and highly reputable retail business in the heart of downtown Whitby. Healthy Meats, the GTAs largest retailer of organic and traditionally raised meats, has been serving a devoted customer base for over 22 years. Known for its premium selection of antibiotic and hormone free meats from trusted local farms, this business is perfectly positioned in the booming market for sustainable, health-conscious food. With increasing consumer demand for ethically sourced, clean food products, Healthy Meats offers a strong foundation for future growth. A new owner will take over a recognized brand with deep community roots, steady revenue, and exciting franchise potential. Poised for continued success, this turnkey operation offers strong growth potential with opportunities to expand into meal kits, delivery services, and an extended product line. Ideal for entrepreneurs or investors looking to enter the thriving health food sector with a proven, established business. Water is included in the lease. Basement storage permitted. Hot water tank is owned and maintained by the landlord adding further value and ease of operation. Don't miss this rare chance to acquire a thriving business with franchise potential in a prime location. (id:6289)
