3 Bedroom, 3.00 Bathroom,
Single Family on 0.00 Acres

Centennial Scarborough, Toronto (centennial Scarborough), Ontario

Tucked away on a quiet, tree-lined street in Scarborough's lovely Centennial neighbourhood, 57 Pepper Tree Drive is that rare mix of cozy charm and modern comfort. Just 4 minutes from the waterfront and minutes from Adams Park - a local favourite for families, with playgrounds, trails, and even a great hill for tobogganing in winter - it's perfectly placed for outdoor fun and fresh air. You're also only 5 minutes to the 401, and close to great schools, shopping, and local restaurants. Completely remodeled from top to bottom, this home has a warm rustic farmhouse feel with vaulted ceilings and wood beams, shiplap accents, and a custom kitchen that's both beautiful and practical. Picture starting your day with coffee by the bay window overlooking the treetops, or gathering around the big open-concept kitchen and dining area to play board games and share family meals. Thoughtful touches - like dual counter-height pull-out dishwashers that eliminate the need to bend over, a built-in pull-out ironing board, and even a laundry chute - make everyday living that much easier. The family room, with its crackling wood-burning fireplace, is the perfect spot to curl up for movie night or a lazy Sunday afternoon. And when you step outside, it feels like you've escaped to your own little retreat - a fully fenced private backyard oasis with mature trees, lush landscaping, and a heated oversized swim spa for year-round relaxation. The three-season shed/workshop, connected by painted walkway stones, adds a touch of charm and extra space for hobbies or playtime. Even the garage is insulated - perfect for year-round projects. At 57 Pepper Tree Drive, life feels a little slower, a little warmer, and a lot more like home. (id:6289)
