Step into the charming family-owned general store, a beloved community staple for an impressive 89 years! This spacious retail area comes fully equipped with everything you need to hit the ground running—ample shelving, fridges, freezers, cash registers and so much more. At the rear of the store, discover the inviting 2-level living quarters currently being used as an Airbnb. The main floor boasts a bright kitchen and dining area, ideal for family meals or entertaining guests while the second level features a cozy living room with beautiful views of the Northumberland Strait and 2 bedrooms, ensuring you have plenty of space to relax after a long day. A full bathroom adds to the functionality, making this living space as practical as it is charming. On the main level a second 1 Bedroom AirBnB was recently added for an additional income source. The options are as limitless as the horizon! (id:6289)
