The moment these homeowners saw the view, they knew it was the one - there was no need to even look at the house. This beautifully rebuilt, contractor designed home sits on a breathtaking 2-acre oceanfront parcel. The house that once stood here has since been stripped down to the basement level and completely rebuilt, becoming the dream home these owners envisioned. With approx. 350ft of ocean frontage, you'll glimpse passing ships and maybe even spot a whale. No detail was overlooked in the rebuild - from the studs to the finishes. The home offers 3 bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, and a layout designed for everyday luxury. The primary suite boasts ocean views, a spa-like ensuite with a two-person tub, and spacious walk-in closet. The kitchen is magazine-worthy, featuring a pot filler, waterfall quartz countertop, gas stove, floor-to-ceiling cabinetry, and showpiece lighting. Just a few steps down, the sunken living room invites you to relax in style, with its coffered ceiling and modern dark brown-accented staircase tying the main spaces together with elegance and intention. Outside, enjoy the oversized double garage, veranda, closed-in gazebo with wood stove attached to the back deck, and exterior kitchen - all designed for effortless coastal living, just minutes from downtown. Exceptional space for entertaining inside and out. Better than move-in ready - this home is ready to spoil you. You won't need to lift a finger in this completely rebuilt, oceanfront dream.
