The Thomas Furlong Building est.1879 A Rare Opportunity to Own a Piece of Saint John History Commanding attention in the heart of Uptown Saint John, this distinguished 5-storey brick landmark blends rich heritage with modern luxury. Overlooking the Saint John Harbour, cruise ship terminal, and 506 entertainment district, it also sits directly across from the transformative Fundy Quay Project an exciting new waterfront development that will elevate the area without obstructing the views. This exceptional property features a 2-storey penthouse and two upscale, turn-key Airbnb suites each tastefully furnished and boasting Superhost status. All suites offer natural lighting, kitchenettes, inviting living areas, and balconies with sweeping maritime views. With a proven 10-year track record as a successful Airbnb destination, this is a ready-made investment opportunity. This property can also be used as Owner-Occupied situation with the opportunity to live in and generate income from the property. The ground level offers prime commercial/retail space in a high-foot-traffic zone. Meticulously preserved, the building showcases 19th-century craftsmanship with tasteful contemporary upgrades perfect for discerning investors or heritage lovers. Just steps from gourmet dining, nightlife, and cultural attractions, this is a rare opportunity to own one of the city's most iconic and income-generating properties. (id:6289)
