Presenting 90 Isleview Place. Named one of Canada's Top 30 Homes by Western Living, it is set within a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, where sliding glass walls dissolve boundaries between land, ocean, and sky, becoming a vessel for life on the ocean, where salt air carries the song of whales across the water. Light shifts through the steel-framed structure like a living tide, revealing spaces attuned to both shelter and horizon. A remastered classic, recently completed, it now awaits its next custodian. Built in 1981
