The Morse House by Thompson, Berwick & Pratt is now live online and will soon appear on international newsstands. As the story reveals, "Imagine a home that Hollywood might cast as the quintessential American dream-only it's not in California or the Hamptons, but nestled right here on Canada's West Coast." This waterfront estate spans over 23 acres at Bowen Island's storied Hood Point, with nearly 1½ kilometre of shoreline, a private dock, indoor tennis court, and ocean-view pool. Featured in productions by Paramount Pictures and MGM Studios, it carries the Hollywood dream-with a distinctly Canadian soul.
