In City Limits, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan

Iron Bridge Estates is a premier subdivision located in the northwest corner of Moose Jaw. Designed to take advantage of nature and space, while maintaining the most desirable community infrastructure and amenities. Large country residential properties with an abundance of green spaces, park areas, and recreational pathways. Almost all of the remaining lots are designed for walkout basements. Prices and sizes range from .48 acres up to almost a full acre! Thoughtfully designed to ensure that every lot is worthy of your dream home. Architectural controls and design guidelines help develop and preserve the aesthetics and integrity of the community while protecting property values for generations. The Iron Bridge Community Association has approval to build a new Outdoor Recreation Facility with Sports Court/Ice Rink, storage and utility shed, and a community pavilion/gazebo with outdoor fireplace! Ask about the Developer's Financing Program. If you want to build your dream house in Moose Jaw, why would you build anywhere else? (id:6289)
