Single Family on 0.36 Acres

N/A, Stoughton, Saskatchewan

Welcome to 327 Russell Street, in Stoughton, Sk. This very spacious four level split is located on a quiet street, and backs onto the open prairie, allowing the occasional wildlife to visit. Step into the large front foyer ,and head up a few steps to a wide open living/ dining area. The eat-in kitchen boasts oak cupboards, and a functional island .The large dining room offers space for large family gatherings, and the living room features a gorgeous stone, gas fireplace, and French doors to go outside. As you head up the wide oak staircase, you'll marvel at the wide hallway, that leads to a master bedroom w/ two piece ensuite, plus three additional bedrooms, and four piece bath. The lower level consists of a spacious family room with a wood burning fireplace, a teenager sized bedroom, an office , plus a three piece bath, and laundry/mud room. In the basement, you'll discover a recreation room, perfect for the kids to romp around in, or large family functions. There's also a furnace/ utility room. This home has an oversized 25' x 31' extra insulated, heated garage, as well. Outside, there's a great deck, accessed from the living room, a patio area, and firepit, all situated in a park like yard that features a grassy area, beautiful, stately trees, plus the yard includes a ShelterLogic shed, and two additional storage sheds! Many other extras, including central air, and some underground sprinklers. This home requires some finishing touches, and once complete, will offer you a one of a kind forever
