Properties like this don't come along every day, the beauty inside and the stunning brick exterior are matched by the fabulous west side location. This 4,340 sq ft property has been well taken care of including newer shingles and a newer sloped roof on the west side. If you need space for endless opportunities, this is the building for you. The stunning stained glass windows add a colorful and cheery atmosphere that welcomes you when you walk in and while you enjoy the main floor space. With plenty of office space that can be divided to create more rooms on the main floor. Heading down to the basement, you will find an updated kitchen with a serving window, multiple offices/storage rooms and a large area for larger functions with tons of natural light.
