Built on a solid poured-concrete foundation with brick construction and steel roof, this home is very livable but ready for renovations to create a contemporary home for the next generation. The beautiful front foyer is a grand entry hall with Arts & Crafts staircase giving understated Downton Abbey vibes. The current owners updated the residence with an open concept kitchen/family dining room across the west side of the house which is flooded with sunlight. The beautiful formal living room is lined with rare cypress tongue & groove panelling and features a brick gas fireplace, stained glass french doors and opens to a library with built-in glass bookcases. Two patio doors lead to a large sunroom which spans the east side of the house. Incredible original features include second floor sleeping porches on both the front and rear of the house and a back staircase for servants. 4.5 bathrooms and a total of 7 bedrooms on the second and third floors. The primary suite in the southwest
