Historic Charm Meets Modern Comfort in the Heart of Milton. Welcome to 142 Martin Street, a beautifully restored century home (circa 1920) located on a generous lot just steps from downtown Milton. Rich in character and timeless appeal, this stately property boasts original interior doors, trim, and a grand staircase that have been lovingly preserved. The refinished original hardwood floors and soaring ceilings create a warm, elegant atmosphere, while the inviting front porch adds a touch of classic charm. Thoughtfully updated for today's lifestyle, the home features modernized essentials including the roof, windows, electrical, and HVAC systems offering peace of mind without compromising its heritage. Currently configured as a professional office space, the layout provides flexibility and can be easily converted back into a stunning family residence. Located in a sought-after neighbourhood surrounded by newly renovated and expanded homes, and just steps to the newly revamped Martin Street Public School, this unique property presents a rare opportunity to own a piece of Milton's history while enjoying all the conveniences of downtown living.
