Northern Bruce Peninsula, Northern Bruce Peninsula, Ontario

Nestled just a short 5-minute stroll (400 meters) from the sparkling shores of Lake Huron, this beautiful property offers an incredible opportunity to bring your vision to life. Spanning an impressive 200' x 95' (nearly half an acre), it provides the perfect canvas for your dream home, cottage, or vacation retreat. Located on a year-round paved road, this property combines convenience with tranquility. Essential utilities like hydro, internet, and telephone services are already available at the lot line, simplifying the building process. The land features a thoughtfully cleared section while retaining a charming mix of mature trees, offering both functionality and natural beauty. For water lovers, the nearby public dock invites you to explore Lake Huron's pristine waters. Across the road, the serene "Turtle Pond" adds a picturesque touch, complete with sightings of majestic herons and a peaceful ambiance. Conveniently located a short drive from Lion's Head, you'll have easy access to grocery stores, shops, and local amenities. After a day of exploring, treat yourself to ice cream and enjoy the sandy beach and marina in town. Whether you're dreaming of building a permanent home, a seasonal retreat, or simply owning a piece of the Bruce Peninsula's breathtaking landscape, this property is your blank slate to make it happen. Your adventure begins here don't
