Nestled at the tranquil end of a picturesque West End cul-de-sac lies a slice of paradise ready to welcome you home. This enchanting Tudor-style bungalow is more than a house its a dream realized, waiting only for your suitcase and toothbrush. Every detail has been thoughtfully attended to, with the hard work already complete, leaving behind a masterpiece that shines with perfection. The property's expansive 200x100-foot lot strikes a harmonious balance between space and intimacy. As you approach, a newly paved driveway greets you, offering parking for 8 or more vehicles with ease. Whether you're hosting a gathering or simply enjoying the luxury of space, this driveway ensures everyone is accommodated. Beyond that, a 3-car garage and an additional carport provide even more room for your vehicles, hobbies, or storage needs. The large, sunlit kitchen is a chefs delight, blending classic style with every modern convenience you could wish for. Granite countertops, crowned by a central island, invite culinary creativity and social gatherings alike. Here, cooking isn't just a task its an experience. The charm continues into the living and family rooms, united by a stunning double-sided gas fireplace. Imagine cozy evenings spent with the flicker of flames illuminating both spaces, creating a warm and inviting ambiance that transforms every moment into something extraordinary. The primary bedroom is a retreat within a retreat spacious haven boasting a beautifully designed 3-piece ensuite bath. Thoughtfully appointed and bathed in natural light, it promises restful nights and peaceful mornings. Downstairs, the home expands further with a generously sized recreation room. Featuring the same exquisite hardwood floors, it offers the perfect setting for games, gatherings, or quiet personal time. An additional bedroom and bathroom on this level provide privacy and comfort for guests or family members, while ample storage ensures that everything has its place. (id:6289)
