(south Marysburg Ward), Ontario

Nestled in the sought-after community of Black River, this creekside retreat offers a rare blend of serenity and utility on just over half an acre. Recently renovated, the residence unfolds across a bright, well-proportioned layout featuring two bedrooms and one bathroom, with option for a third bedroom to be configured into the home for evolving or specific lifestyle needs. Elevated by thoughtful updates which including new flooring throughout the main level, light fixtures indoor and out, rejuvenated bathroom, and kitchen with new refrigerator and oven, the home also freshly painted is simply turnkey and poised for immediate enjoyment. From the waters edge, the property offers direct access to the creek and open lake beyond, welcoming canoeing, kayaking, or paddle boarding from your own backyard even for smaller runabout. The gently treed landscape, combined with expansive frontage and an inviting natural backdrop, encourages a fluid connection between indoor comfort and outdoor adventure. Located 10 minutes south of Picton and around the corner from some of The Countys most celebrated artisan destinations and farm stands, the home is perfectly positioned for both full-time living and weekend reprieve. Whether savouring morning stillness on the deck or paddling into the golden light of sunset on a summer evening, this is a property that enhances the rhythm of everyday life with sounds of nature echoing in the background. A quiet canvas for creative living awaits your next chapter. (id:6289)
