53 - Frontenac North, Frontenac (frontenac North), Ontario

Accessible by boat, this 9.44-acre waterfront sanctuary on Palmerston Lake offers the rarest kind of seclusion. With over 1200 feet of pristine shoreline, including two quiet bays, the land feels like its own private world, wrapped in mature mixed forest and not a neighbour in site. A brand new dock invites you into the deep, clean water that makes Palmerston Lake one of the most sought-after lakes in the Ottawa Valley. A recently added outhouse and a mostly cleared building or campsite mark the beginning of your future retreat, whether you imagine a rustic cabin tucked into the trees or a peaceful tenting hideaway under the stars. The land borders thousands of acres of crown land, laced with trails that welcome ATVs and snowmobiles through all seasons. An old, closed logging road through the crown land provides potential 4x4 access to the property. Rent a boat slip at the Palmerston Lake Marina for easy access to the property ($700 for 2025). Here, privacy is not just a feature but a way of life, and the vastness of the setting offers a rare freedom. This is a place for morning swims in still waters, for evenings by the fire with nothing but the hush of forest around you. A place where the wilderness is vast, the water is close, and the possibilities are as expansive as the land itself. (id:6289)
