Featured in House & Home, this celebrated design retreat redefines elevated country living in Prince Edward County. Set on 15+ acres across two separately deeded lots, the property centres around an iconic 1850s farmhouse that has been transformed into a playful yet sophisticated escape featuring soaring cathedral ceilings, original barn beams, curated vintage furnishings, and richly layered textures throughout. With 4 bedrooms and 2 baths, the main residence operates as a fully licensed short-term rental with a strong income history and loyal following, offered turnkey and fully furnished. The adjacent parcel includes two striking barns; one preserved in its original character, the other reimaged by ERA Architects, known for their work on the Drake Devonshire and Brighthouse. Substantial progress has been made toward rezoning the site for event use, with the potential to host up to 100 guests. With elevated views across the countryside and water vistas toward the Bay of Quinte, this lot also presents an exceptional opportunity to add a second residence or create a private multi-home compound that blends nature, design, and lifestyle.
