4 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom,
Single Family on 0.00 Acres

723 - South Glengarry (Charlottenburgh) Twp,
South Glengarry, Ontario

Step back in time and fall in love with this historic gem nestled in the heart of the charming village of Williamstown. Built in 1884, this 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home sits gracefully along the winding shore of the Raisin River, offering a peaceful lifestyle full of timeless beauty and storybook surroundings. Full of rustic charm and character, this home invites you to imagine the stories it could tell if the walls could talk. Inside, you'll find a spacious layout with updated hardwood flooring throughout, a generous kitchen with plenty of cabinetry, a tranquil living room with a wood burning stove and a main floor family room warmed by a cozy pellet stove with views of the serene backyard. The main floor also features a full bathroom with a vintage clawfoot tub that also accommodated the laundry and a private office perfect for remote work or creative pursuits. Upstairs, four well-sized bedrooms and a second bathroom with a walk-in shower provide comfort and functionality for the whole family. Step outside to enjoy the immaculate yard, filled with vibrant perennial gardens, a large deck overlooking the river, a charming white picket fence, a she shed/workshop, and a paved driveway. The front deck is the perfect spot to unwind on the swing with a glass of wine and take in the peaceful village views as the sun sets. Located just across from the historic grounds of Ontario's oldest fair, this one-of-a-kind home is a beautiful blend of heritage, charm, and tranquil country living. This well loved home is looking for its next keeper. (id:6289)
