Hallowell Ward, Prince Edward County
(hallowell Ward), Ontario

Nestled in the heart of Prince Edward County where heritage meets artistry Kinsip Distillery stands as a landmark estate blending a thriving business, historic charm, and modern rural living across 75 rolling acres. At its center is a state-of-the-art estate distillery and bottling facility, built for efficiency, quality, and small-batch terroir excellence that rivals the best in Canada. From award winning smooth whiskies and bright gins to barrel-aged maple syrup and handcrafted bitters, every creation captures the spirit of The County, the pride of its makers and the heritage of the land. The welcoming tasting room invites connection and discovery, offering an authentic experience for both locals and visitors. Complemented by a private guest restroom, its a space designed for stories, celebration, and community. The property also includes heritage barns and outbuildings that are ready for production, events, or expansion and are set amid a rural landscape alive with charm: roosters greet the sunrise, peacocks wander the fields, and chickens roam the grounds. With ample room to grow, cultivate, or host, the estate offers boundless potential. Anchoring the grounds is a magnificent Second Empire style century home, built in 1874 and lovingly maintained. Original wide-plank floors, doors, and trim showcase timeless craftsmanship, while the mansard roof and tall windows highlight its architectural grace. With three bedrooms and two bathrooms, the residence provides an ideal owner's retreat, on-site company headquarters, or distinctive guest accommodations. Kinsip Distillery represents a rare, turn-key opportunity a profitable and beloved brand rooted in local heritage, framed by the natural beauty of The County, and poised for its next chapter. Whether imagined as a private estate, hospitality destination, or an expansion of a celebrated brand, this is a once-in-a-generation legacy opportunity. See it today, fall in love, and you too can call the County Home! (id:6289)
