561 - North Algona/Wilberforce Twp, North
Algona Wilberforce, Ontario

Welcome to your own nature sanctuary in the heart of the Ottawa Valley: a beautiful lake with a 40 foot depth and over 100 acres of tranquility, with forest trails and a creek that runs through the property. This extraordinary property has a deeded 66-foot right-of-way, surrounded by towering pines and 25,000 acres of adjoining Crown land. The result is absolute peace and privacy, a place where you hear nothing but the wind and water. A small, pristine lake reflects the afternoon light and gives the perfect setting for hunting, canoeing, fishing, or simply unplugging. The land features gently rolling terrain, open clearings, and mature woodland; ideal for a private cabin, off-grid retreat, or future estate home. Located near Wilberforce and minutes from Algonquin Park's south-eastern boundary, this parcel blends untouched wilderness with easy access to nearby towns and services. Whether you're seeking a private nature preserve, hunting or recreation base, or long-term investment, this property offers rare scale and natural beauty in a truly peaceful setting. A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to own a waterfront retreat. ACCESS: via path that you will need an SUV for and is from Dore Bay Road (id:6289)
